

Loki the Brave Dog

By Or and Shiraz Shterenshus

Meet Loki. Loki is a big dog with very soft fur and tall, pointy ears. He loves to run in the garden and watch the colorful butterflies fly by.

Maya is Loki's very best friend. They love to play together. Maya throws a yellow ball, and Loki runs as fast as he can to catch it.

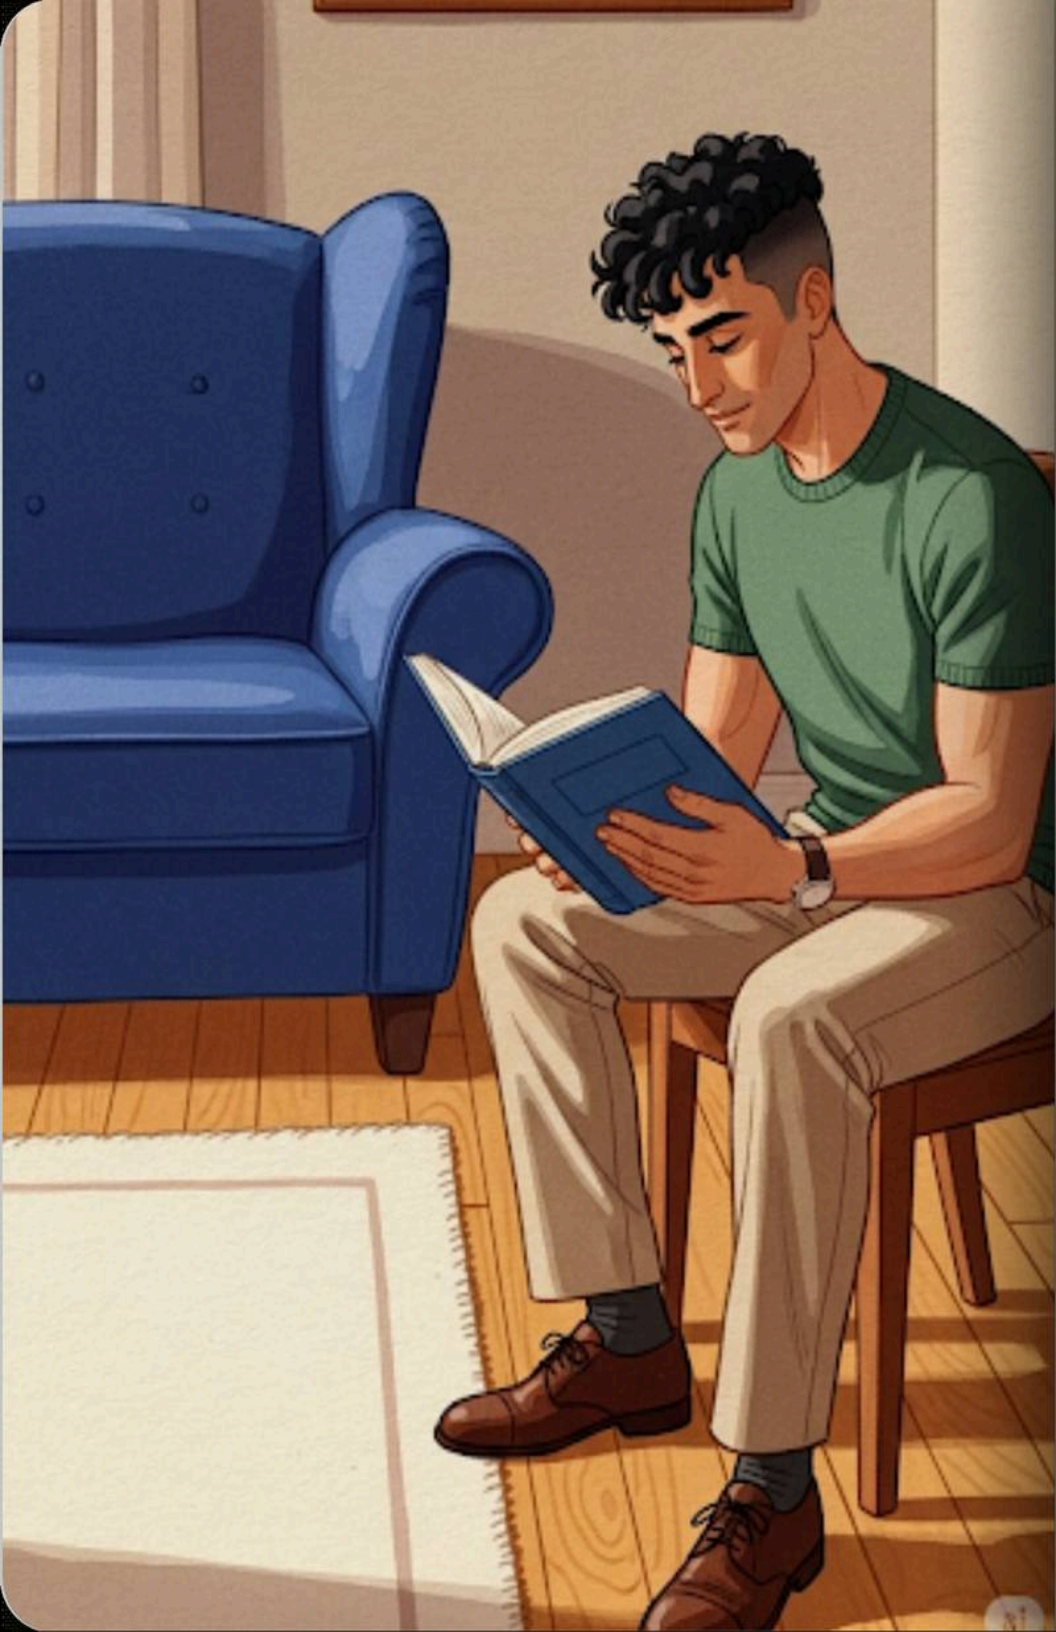

Sometimes, Loki feels a little bit shy. When he hears a new voice, his tummy feels funny. New people look very big and a little bit scary to him.

"Ding-dong!" goes the doorbell. Loki runs away fast! He finds a safe spot to hide behind a big blue armchair. He peeks out to see who is there.

Maya walks over to the chair. She sits down on the floor right next to Loki. "It is okay, Loki," she says in a soft, kind voice.

A visitor named Noam sits on a chair across the room.
Noam is very quiet. He does not shout or run. He just sits and reads a big book.

Loki sniffs the air with his black nose. He smells the garden and yummy cookies. He takes one tiny step out from behind the blue chair.

Loki walks slowly toward the middle of the room.
Maya is there to help him.
She reaches out and gently pets his back to show him he is safe.

Loki feels brave now! He wags his tail happy and fast.
Noam is not scary at all.
Now Loki has a new friend to play with!
